

I had dinner at Leverock's the other night and the food was fantastic. There's a good reason for this: new manager Kevin Rose. Kevin joined the Leverocks/Palm Island team in December 2008. He comes to us from New York State, with a degree in Culinary Arts from Johnson and Wales. He has always worked in food service, at such restaurants as Panera Bread and Durango Steak House. He also owned and operated his own pizza restaurant in Punta Gorda for many years.

Kevin and his wife Lois have a fifteen year old son named Kyle. On his day off, he enjoys fishing and spending time with his family.

He says he came to Leverocks for the atmosphere and the casual dining aspect, and has great plans for improving the late-evening business with a new menu and live entertainment on Saturday nights.

Stop by Leverocks soon to try the new menu. I highly recommend the calamari!

Beautiful Etched Glass Divider at the Sailfish Lounge

Editors Note: The newly refurbished Sailfish Lounge at Leverock's is a great place to meet friends and have a drink. On Saturdays they have live music from 7:30 until 10:00 p.m. There are also daily lunch and dinner specials.
